

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Russell Sigler Signs with XLerant, Inc.

STAMFORD, CT.— XLerant, Inc., announced that Russell Sigler has selected BudgetPak™ to control the budget process, and manage revenue and costs.

Russell Sigler provides a cool service in a hot region. Through about a dozen locations in Arizona, Nevada, New Mexico, and Texas, the company provides commercial and residential air conditioning contractors with equipment, parts, supplies, and technical support. Brands include Carrier and Bryant. Chairman and CEO Russ Sigler founded his namesake company in Tulsa, Oklahoma in 1950. His son, Jack Sigler, serves as the firm's president.

“We are honored to have been selected by Russell Sigler,” says Lawrence Serven, President of XLerant, Inc. “Along with EMCOR Group, another XLerant client, Russell Sigler is a clear leader in the field of HVAC and construction.”

“BudgetPak replaces the need for non-technical users to memorize and execute formulas and commands,” says Charles Pevsner, Chief Technology Officer of XLerant. “BudgetPak automates the common business formulas users need when developing a budget, and reduces the amount of rework as a result.”

About XLerant

XLerant helps companies control costs, instill fiscal discipline in the workforce, and manage profitability. XLerant's planning application; called BudgetPak, is unique in the way it replaces traditional budget templates & spreadsheet commands with plain English prompts and selections – making it easy for everyone to use. Improved collaboration, greater ownership of the numbers and increased transparency enable CFOs to better manage their business.

###